

Introducing Pacific Blue Cruises

Pacific Blue Cruises operate the MV Lycianda which is a small boutique cruise ship offering a vastly different experience to big ship cruise lines. Her small size enables her guests to travel to Vanuatu's remote islands while still enjoying the modern world's comforts. The choice of itineraries offer guests a unique experience of travelling to beautiful remote places in the Vanuatu group of islands.

North Efate Cruises 3 days/2 nights

Depart Port Vila and cruise around to beautiful Havannah Harbour and enjoy crystal blue waters, great swimming and snorkling and beautiful sunsets. Experience Moso Island and the island of Nguna with its cultural village, traditional customs. Swim with turtles or just relax one of the many stunning beaches.

Central Islands Cruise

6 days/5 nights (includes the Pentecost Jump)

Depart Port Vila and cruise through Havannah Harbour and the rarely visited Maskeleyne Islands....experience their traditional cultures and lifestyle in this beautiful set of islands. Day 3 of the cruise arrives at Pentecost Island where the famous Pentecost Jump (the original bungy jump!) awaits. The local people will welcome you to their island to share this event which takes place each year at the time of the yam harvest. Sail to the island of Ambrym which is famous for black magic and sorcery, this island also provides an opportunity to purchase some of the best wood carvings in the South Pacific. Return via the Shepherd Islands which takes you through some of the most spectacular island scenery, the island of Moso is the last stop on the last morning of the cruise to swim, snorkel and relax before returning to Port Vila.
